HISTORY

Commitment, cooperation and ambition in terms of international solidarity

Commitment

After time spent working in sub-Saharan Africa, through the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ludovic Donnadiou, a graduate in accounting and development economics, joined forces with international audit firms and created closer ties with the French Development Agency in the microfinance sector.

Deeply committed and aware of the specific needs of the international solidarity sector in the financial and legal fields, Ludovic Donnadiou decided to fully devote himself to it by establishing a dedicated audit and consulting firm.

Cooperation

In 2008, Ludovic Donnadiou met René Ricol, director and co-founder of Ricol Lasteyrie, a financial and strategic expertise firm, and a leading figure in the national and international accounting profession.

Driven by the desire to establish a firm dedicated to the international solidarity sector, in keeping with his values and convictions, René Ricol decided to commit Ricol Lasteyrie to the upcoming firm. Thus Donnadiou & Associés was born.

René Ricol played a key role in the development of Donnadiou & Associés until 2016. Today he is an honorary member.

Ambition

Ten years after its creation, Donnadiou & Associés now supports a growing number of solidarity partners (NGOs, foundations and funding bodies) both in France and internationally, which have varied profiles, vocations and nationalities.

Today, the firm's ambition is to increase the independence of solidarity partners in southern, by means of a skills transfer, and the creation of an international network of local legal and financial experts, providing services at a local level.

Main interlocutors

Ludovic Donnadiou - Co-Founding Partner – CEO

Ludovic, the co-founder and CEO of Donnadiou & Associés, is a chartered accountant and statutory auditor. He graduated in accounting and development economics, beginning his professional life overseas (French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, major international audit firms, French Development Agency). His thirteen years' experience in the solidarity sector affords him a unique overall, strategic vision in this field. An expert in financial security, a consultant and a trainer with NGOs and collectives, including Coordination Sud, Ludovic is the firm's CEO.

Arnaud Barbotte - Partner - Director of Operations

A graduate of the Sup de Co business school in Montpellier, with a double Masters in Audit Control, Consulting and Information Systems Management, Arnaud is a trainee chartered accountant and trainee statutory auditor. After initial experience in a traditional audit firm, he joined Donnadiou & Associés in 2013, so as to specialise in the international solidarity sector. Arnaud works with several solidarity organisations (NGOs, foundations and funding bodies). He oversees the firm's operations, specifically in the field of project audits both in France and internationally, particularly in sensitive areas.

Julien Bessi - Partner - Technical Director

A statutory auditor, Julien has also undertaken studies in chartered accounting. After thirteen years in the private sector, he chose to serve the public interest by joining Donnadiou & Associés in 2014. A leading-edge technical expert, he has a wide range of knowledge of legal texts and professional standards, which he uses to find a solution, whether legal or standards-based, that is tailored to each specific case. Julien is highly committed to respecting the rights of all and to ensuring that fairness prevails for all parties. A trainer and the author of numerous publications, Julien provides technical supervision for the firm's activities.

Eloïse Dougère - Institutional donors legal advisor

Graduated from EDHEC business school, and founder of ELD Consulting and Training, Eloïse has been involved in the voluntary sector for fifteen years as a private and public finance officer, as well as a project coordinator for various associations in France and abroad. She has a sound knowledge of public and private funding rules, as well as financial management skills, and experience in the management of non-profit projects and partnerships. Eloïse is consultant and trainer for several NGOs and French collectives (Coordination Sud and regional multi-actors networks) and teaches in several specialized Masters.
